Bullocks of Georgia Bulloch

This is Perhaps the only family in America, whose name ends with an H. instead of a K. There was a family in Scotland descendants from Donald Bullock McDonald, a brother of Donald "Lord of the Isles".

The Bullocks of Ga are presumed to be of the same family. The first of the name in America was James Bulloch, a highly educated man, said to be a minister, he was born in Glasgow, Scotland in 1701. He was in Charleston S.C. as early as 1729, appears as a merchant, soon after a planter in Colleton Co. in 1741. A special agent to the Creeks until Great Seal and in 1754. Member of S.C. Colonial Assembly, and in Oct, 1767 a justice for Christ Church parish. in Ga. He was the father of Archibald Bulloch. president of Ga. in 1776/7 - He was many things.

WILLIAM BULLOCK AND HIS DESCENDANTS
FROM GEORGIA TO TEXAS

by
Mrs. Joe Ericson

1.

William Bullock, born 1 March 1764, was the progenitor of many people in the East Texas area. According to the family Bible, William married Elizabeth Oliphant on 30 September 1784. She was born 29 October 1764. Four children were born to this union:

2. i. Winifred Bullock, mar. Nathaniel Sims
- ii. Sally (Sarah) Bullock, b. 1 July 1787
3. iii. James Bullock, mar. Mary Elizabeth Noble
4. iv. Susanna Bullock, mar. Rev. Isaac Tabor

The Spartanburg, S. C., census for 1790 lists a William Bullock with children the proper ages; so it is supposed that this man is the same as the subject of this discussion. His wife, Elizabeth Oliphant died 24 June 1795, leaving William alone with the responsibility of rearing four small children. On 23 August 1796 William Bullock married Spicey Bowman, b. 1773 in South Carolina. (Supposed to have been the daughter of William and Sarah Bowman) Six children were born to this union:

5. v. Edward Bullock, mar. (1) ---- Lane; (2) Penelope McMorris, (3) Mary -----.
- vi. David Bullock, b. 20 Feb. 1799, Franklin Co., Ga.
6. vii. John Bullock, mar. Mary -----.
- viii. Elizabeth Bullock, b. 22 Aug. 1803, Franklin Co., Ga.
7. ix. William Otis Bullock, mar. Sarah Aiken
8. x. Zachariah Bullock, mar. Mary E. Lawrence

William Bullock moved to Franklin Co., Ga. about 1797. He is found in deed records and tax rolls until 1808. Sometime between 1808 and March, 1810, the family moved to Amite Co., Miss. Here Susanna Bullock mar. Rev. Isaac Tabor on 10 March 1810. The 1810 census for Amite Co. lists William with a total of ten whites and four slaves. William Bullock was appointed overseer of the poor in Abner O'Neal's district of Amite Co. (Amite County, Mississippi, by Albert E. Casey, Vol. I, pgs. 6, 344). William was appointed 9 Dec. 1815 one of the commissioners to fix the site for public buildings when Pike Co. was formed. The 1816 census lists William Bullock and family living in Pike Co., where most of them lived until the death of William in 1834. (Pike County, Mississippi 1798-1876, Pioneer Families and Confederate Soldiers, Reconstruction and Redemption, by Luke Ward Conerly. Nashville, Tenn., Brandon Printing Co., 1909, pg. 14) The Pike County courthouse has been destroyed by fire so we fix the date of William's death from an Estate Notice published in the Jackson, Miss., paper in September, 1834 (Newspaper Notices of Mississippi, 1820-1860).

2.

Winifred Bullock (William), born 14 October 1785, mar. Nathaniel Sims on 31 July 1806 (First Marriage Book, Franklin Co., Ga.). Nathaniel was the son of Martin Sims and Anna Jane Howard Sims. Nathan Sims and family received a passport to Western Lands from Franklin Co., Ga. 4 October 1811 (Passports from Georgia, pg. 86). The 1820 Census of Mississippi by Norman Gillis lists Nath Sims in Hinds Co. Nathan (Nathaniel) Sims died in 1852 leaving a will in Hi

County. (Will Book I, Vol. II Abstracts, 1822-59, pg. 40) Winifred's date of death is unknown, but she is not listed in the 1830 census; therefore, she probably died between 1820 and 1830. Children mentioned in the will of Nathan are:

- i. Julius Sims
- ii. Matilda Sims
- iii. Mathew Sims
- iv. Daughter who mar. ----- Wells
- v. Daughter who mar. ----- Whitford

Note: I believe the Richard Sims found in 1835 in San Augustine Co., Texas, is also a son of the above union, but I have never found proof except for similarity of names and place of birth.

3.

James Bullock (William), b. 30 Nov. 1789, married Mary Elizabeth Noble about 1819, presumably in Pike Co., Miss. James and his bride moved to Lawrence Co., Miss. where six children were born:

9. i. William Noble-Bullock mar. Margaret E. E. -----
10. ii. Elizabeth Jane Bullock, mar. David Evans Bates
11. iii. Stephen Noble Bullock, mar. Rachel Linthicum
12. iv. Mary Ann Bullock, mar. S. O. Glasscock; (2) Charles C. Erwin
13. v. James Franklin Bullock, mar. Mary Jane Russell
- vi. Martha Bullock, born 1829, mar. Robert Pierce

James Bullock died 31 January 1829 in Lawrence Co., Miss. Family tradition states that Mary Elizabeth Bullock and family lived for a few years in Holmes Co., Miss., before moving to Nacogdoches Co., Texas, in 1836. Mary Elizabeth lived on land north of Nacogdoches and lived here with her children until her death 15 February 1864. She is buried in the Old North Church Cemetery in Nacogdoches Co.

Susanna Bullock (William), b. 17 January 1792, married Rev. Isaac Tabor 10 March 1810 in Amite Co., Miss. Isaac Tabor is listed as a head of household in Pike Co., Miss. in 1831 (1830 Census of Mississippi by Gillis). Rev. Tabor brought his family and moved to Texas in 1837 and soon settled in Montgomery Co. They had nine children, but the names are known for only six:

- i. Minerva Angeline Tabor, b. 29 Oct. 1829, Holmesville, Pike Co., Miss., mar. Peter Belles Irvine 23 Nov. 1847
- ii. Hudson Tabor
- iii. Nathan S. Tabor
- iv. Catherine Tabor
- v. Lavinia Tabor
- vi. Asbury Tabor

Susanna Bullock died 16 December 1862 at Danville, Montgomery Co., Texas, and is buried at Shepherd Hill Cemetery. Isaac Tabor preceeded her in death on 8 July 1860 and is buried at Prairie Lea Cemetery outside of Lockhart, Texas.

5.

Edward Bullock (William), born 28 August 1797 in Georgia, married three times. His first wife was a daughter of John Lane. His second wife was Penelope McMorris, and his third wife was Mary -----. Names of eight of his children are known. His first wife had only one child and the children of the 7.

William Otis Bullock (William), born 22 September 1805 in Franklin County, Ga. married Sarah Aiken on 28 February 1829. William O. must have been a twin because there is another entry in the Bible this same date, but the page is so blurred it is illegible.

Shortly after the death of his father, William O. moved his family to Clairborne Parish, La. William Otis Bullock lived to be 85 years of age. He died from injuries sustained when thrown from a buggy shortly before his death. He died 19 October 1890 and is buried in Lisbon Cemetery in Claiborne Parish, La.

So much has been said and written of the three Georgia men, Lyman Hall, Button Gwinnett and George Walton who signed their names, with men from other states to that immortal document, few of us realize there were four others entitled to this honor, Archibald Bulloch, Noble Wimberly Jones, John Houston, and Dr. John Joachine Zubly.

The most distinguished of these was Archibald Bulloch. He was born in Charleston S. C. in 1730, the son of Rev. James Bulloch of Wilton, Colleton District, clergyman and planter, and Jean Stobo, daughter of Rev. Archibald Stobo of S. C.

He was educated in law and soon after removing to Savannah in 1750 with his father and family, was admitted to the bar. He married Mary, daughter of James Devaux who in 1760 was Senior Judge under the administration of Gov. Wright. By zeal and application. Archibald Bulloch attained signal success in his profession and in 1768 was named on a committee to correspond with Dr. Benjamin Franklin who had been appointed to transact the affairs of the colony in Great Britain. He was chosen Speaker of the Commons House of Assembly convened in Savannah in 1772 pending a dispute between that body and Gov. Habersham who opposed the election of Dr. Noble Wimberly Jones to that office. Bulloch's letter in reply to the Governor's displays his utterly fearless defense of the rights of the Colonists. In redress Gov. Habersham dissolved the Assembly with the treasury empty and no tax bill passed which hastened open rebellion against Royal government. In all patriotic calls and movements from this time, Archibald Bulloch was personally and prominently associated. His name, with that of Noble W. Jones, John Houston and John Walton, brother of George the Signer, was signed to the famous card which appeared in the Georgia Gazette, July 14, 1774, calling the Sons of Liberty together for the first time to protest openly against the oppression of England. He was chosen to preside over the Provincial Congress which on July 4, 1775 severed the tie of allegiance to the mother country. With John Houston, Dr. Noble Wimberly Jones, and Rev. John J. Zulby and Dr. Lyman Hall, he was elected by this congress delegate to Continental Congress. Because only four of the twelve parishes were represented, they did not have proper credential, but all attended an adjoined Congress Sept. 13 following. The Provincial Congress of Jan. 20, 1776 elected him President and Commander in Chief of Georgia, by which action he became Georgia's first Provisional Governor. The duties of this office prevented him from attending Continental Congress, and his name was not signed to that immortal scroll.

It was his privilege however, to proclaim the Declaration of Independence to the people of Georgia. Accompanied by a personal letter from John Hancock, it was delivered to him in Savannah Aug. 10, 1776 by a courier who had journeyed from Philadelphia on horseback. The old patriot assembled the Provincial Congress and read it aloud to the members. He then convened the populace on the public square and read it again amid the acclamations of the people and the firing of cannon. A procession was then formed of President Archibald Bulloch, soldiers and citizens, all marched to the Liberty Pole where it was again read and King George in effigy was committed to the dust.

But this man who had been so conspicuous in the affairs of the Colony and so influential in shaping the political destinies of Georgia did not live to see and enjoy the fruits of his labor. In February 1786 he died suddenly at his home in Savannah mourned by every citizen of the state.

One of the strangest memorials in Colonial Park, Savannah is a cubical block of marble on which is carved a serpent in form of a complete circle. What it is intended to signify nobody knows. From well authenticated tradition, it is believed that in this spot Archibald Bulloch lies buried.

In his will he mentions wife Mary and "all my children" without naming them. One son married Ann Irvine, and her son James Stevens Bulloch married Martha, a daughter of Gen'l Daniel Stewart and widow of Senator John Elliott and of this union ex-President Theodore Roosevelt and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt are descendants.

REVEREND ISAAC TABOR

A father in Israel has fallen! Reverend Isaac Tabor, long a faithful soldier of the cross and a watchman upon the walls of Zion, is no more! Father Tabor, as he was familiarly known, was born in Claiborne County, Mississippi, on 6th April, 1787, and died in Caldwell County, Texas, July 8th, 1860. He was first convicted of sin under the ministry of Reverend Tobias Gibson, one of the pioneers of Methodism to the Mississippi Territory, and received into the Methodist Episcopal Church by Reverend Thomas Leslie about the year 1807, and was licensed to preach by Reverend Leaver Blackman in 1809. He was never a member of the Conference in Mississippi, but preached extensively in different portions of the State, and part of the time under the Presiding Elder, extending his labors to the State of Louisiana. He moved to Texas in 1837, and soon after settled in Montgomery County. He joined the Texas Conference about the year 1839, and travelled three or four years when he located; but as long as he was able he labored in the cause of Christ, and only ceased to preach from physical disability some two or three years before his death. He left his aged companion to follow him to the tomb, with whom he lived happily for more than half a century. They have nine children, five of whom still live.

Father Tabor did not have the advantages of a finished education, but was deeply versed in the Bible and our standard theological works. Watson's, Wesley's and Fletcher's were his text books, and with these he was very familiar; his style of preaching was of a such a character as to embody a great deal of divinity, and yet was pointed and practical. He was a man of great faith and prayer, and frequently, and sometimes apparently, marvellously realized direct answers to his prayers. He was insensible at his death, but was remarkably happy while he retained his faculties; but from his exemplary walk, there can be no doubt that the old veteran has found rest from his labors, and the old soldier received an honorable discharge, and has gone to his reward on high.

CHARLES BULLOCK, SR. HISTORY

Charles Bullock was born on December 25, 1740, a twin to Jeremiah (Jeremy) and Amy Bullock in Sussex County, Virginia. He was christened on March 29, 1741. His godparents were Henry Ezzel, John Bullock, and Martha Bullock. This information was found on page 15 of the register. According to pg. 241 of the register, Charles Bullock and Richard Bullock were godparents of Augustine, son of Nathaniel Feltz and Ann Augustine, who was born on January 26, 1762. Eph. Hill, Charles Bullock and Mary Feltz were godparents of John, son of William and Hannah Hill, who was born on May 16, 1761.

It is possible that Charles moved from Sussex County, Virginia, to Johnston County, N.C. for a grant is recorded there for a Charles Bullock that is dated January 1, 1763, for 480 acres. (Book 14, page 195). On October 17, 1764, a Charles and Elizabeth Bullock of Johnston County deeded 240 acres to a Caleb Perry. (Book D1, P. 194) If this is the same Charles, then he was married to Elizabeth before he moved to Bladen County, now Robeson County.

Judge Z. T. Fulmore in his Annals of Ashpole Community, 1750-1814 mentions that Charles Bullock was one of the first settlers in the region. He states that the early settlers including Charles Bullock were native born Americans of English, Welsh, and Scotch families mostly all of which were natives of Scotland. According to information provided by Dr. Lewis I. Bullock, of Los Angeles, California, Charles had received a grant of land in Bladen County in 1774 and four grants in 1779. Robeson County was then a part of Bladen County. The record books in Robeson County record Charles Bullock with buying land as early as 1795 in Robeson County. He bought then 200 acres in West Horn Camp Branch and in 1798 he secures land on E. Ashpole and Playhill Branchs.

The 1790 census of Robeson County records the following information on Charles. He had in his home at that time 3 free white males of 16, 5 free white males under 16, and 5 free white females.

Gil, (and Pat, if you're "listening in") I have a will of Charles BULLOCK, dated 22 Nov 1823, probated Nov 1826, in Robeson County NC, in which he names a daughter Martha ODOM. There seem to be other members of the BULLOCKs who went to MS, so I thought this might be a connection. Another daughter of Charles, Esther BULLOCK, married Zabon DAVIS, and moved to Marion County, MS in about 1818. Pat, I'm sure you already know of many Robeson County to MS migration, as I see that you, too, are a subscriber to "The Robeson County Register". Do you know where I might find a copy of "Bullock Twigs and Branches" by Marie Luter Upton in 1966 in Madison, Mississippi, or "Luter-Davis and Allied Families", published in 1959 by Marie Luter Upton? My connection is through Lemuel BULLOCK, brother of the above mentioned sisters, and his wife, Milly ARNETT. Milly was a daughter of Perrin Green ARNETT and Clary DAVIS. Clary DAVIS was a sister of the above mentioned Zabon DAVIS. They were children of Thomas DAVIS. Let me know if we make a connection. Thank you.

TO: PATRICIA EDWARDS (CHCT35B)
FROM: H. GLENN JAMES (SHRX33A)
SUBJECT: BULLOCK

This is in reply to your note to Martha McIntosh regarding Joel Jefferson Bullock. You mentioned a Whitmell K. Bullock of Edgecombe County, North Carolina. My records agree that he was the son (second child) of David and Frances Killebrew Bullock. Whitmell was born about 1776 in Edgecombe Co. His wife was Lucy Bell Bullock. Her father was Frederick Bell. Their children were William Bullock, Polly Bullock, and Elizabeth Bullock. Some of these Edgecombe Bullocks began to spell their name with a "u" - Bulluck - or at least the county clerk did. Whitmell K. Bullock was named guardian of Balaam Bullock's children on February 25, 1828. One of Balaam's sons, David Bullock, sold all of his land in Edgecombe County in Deed Book 22, Page 62 (don't have the date), and apparently moved west at that time. Whitmell Bullock's siblings were David Bullock II, Jonathan Bullock (born 1794), Gray Bullock, William Bullock, and Orren Bullock (born December 12, 1806), all in Edgecombe. His parents were married September 15, 1884. I must admit that I don't have very complete records on this Edgecombe crowd, as my folks were from adjoining Pitt County, and the connections between the two were tenuous. Most of these data have come from my cousin in Greensboro.
